

Infiniti Connects™ Member Handbook 2025–26

*Issued by Surabhi Srivastava & Executive Committee
Effective: 11 April 2025*

A Note from the Founder

When I founded Infiniti Connects™, I envisioned a community where entrepreneurs, professionals, and changemakers could come together to build not just networks — but relationships of trust, respect, and growth. From living room meetups to large-scale exhibitions, the journey has been nothing short of inspiring.

Every member adds unique value to our collective. I urge you to not just attend — but engage, contribute, and grow with intention. This handbook isn't a rulebook; it's a culture guide — a reflection of who we are and who we're becoming.

With gratitude and excitement for what lies ahead,

— Surabhi Srivastava

Annexure A – WhatsApp Group Guidelines

Infiniti Connects™ WhatsApp groups are designed to foster connection, collaboration, and professional learning. These are not general-purpose groups — they are focused business networks, and members are expected to maintain the highest standards of etiquette and respect.

🚫 DON'Ts – Strictly Not Allowed

- No religious or political content — absolutely prohibited in all forms.
- No direct selling, except on designated days/times communicated by admins.
- No forwarded messages unless they genuinely contribute to professional development, awareness, or learning.
- No unverified “news” or sensitive information should ever be shared.
- Do not overuse the group just for memes, jokes, images, or videos.
- Don’t ignore other members’ posts — the group is not a one-way broadcast tool.
- Avoid flooding the group with multiple creatives — always combine into a single collage.
- Avoid breaking the rhythm of valuable discussions with unrelated content.
- Do not self-promote excessively through your persona — let your work and contributions speak.

DO’s – What We Encourage

- Respect the purpose of the group: Building meaningful professional connections through value sharing and learning.
- Always acknowledge someone who supports, refers, or helps you within the group.
- Maintain professional tone in all your messages — even when casual or humorous.
- If a conversation becomes personal or one-to-one, move it to direct messages (DM).
- Use the reply function while responding to a specific message to maintain clarity.
- Use smiles, emojis, and warm responses — but thoughtfully.
- Show consideration and appreciation to all members, regardless of hierarchy or role.
- Keep messages limited to 5 per day to allow breathing room for others.
- Always use a collage or share a single image or link instead of multiple separate images.
- Share insights, useful links, event info, learnings, or light inspiration that help members.
- Encourage engagement — like, comment, clap, or reply to positive news and updates from others.

Appreciated Content (You’re Welcome To Share)

- Birthday wishes, festival greetings, and celebratory messages
- Personal achievements or business milestones
- Learning moments or key takeaways from your work or life
- CSR initiatives, charity drives, or community service announcements
- Calls for support for NGO/volunteer efforts

- Thoughtful, intelligent humor that brings a smile without offending
- Updates on events, seminars, or workshops that could benefit members

Admin Discretion

The admin team reserves the right to:

- Remove any content that goes against these guidelines without notice
- Temporarily mute the group if decorum is being compromised
- Privately or publicly issue reminders or warnings to maintain group quality
- Remove members who repeatedly violate these norms, after appropriate warnings
